NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS!

DON'T FORGET TO SET YOUR CLOCKS BACK

Remember to set your clocks back 1 hour Saturday evening, October 28, 2006, before going to bed.

Minister Appreciation Day for Sunday, October 29, 2006, has been postponed until further notice.

SCRIPTURE FOR THE WEEK:

“Spiritual Bread”

“And Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst.”

- John 6:35 (NKJV)

UPCOMING YOUTH EVENTS AND NEWS

The Youth Department will be attending “Judgment House” at Beacon Baptist Church on Saturday evening, October 28, 2006. We will be leaving Eastland Baptist Church at 5:30 p.m.! Hope to see everyone there to hear this dramatic presentation of the gospel of Christ. We had a total of 10 students and 2 adults attend the “Connect” Conference on Sunday, October 22, 2006. The Sanctuary of Inglewood Baptist Church was completely filled with students and leaders worshipping God through music and the spoken word of the gospel. Many students came forward for various decisions at the conclusion of the service.

OUTREACH EVENT

Our next Outreach event will be held on Saturday, October 28, 2006. The event will be from 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m.! Hope to see you there.

Miss Elizabeth Wall was a long-time member and worker in Eastland Baptist Church. She was Church Organist for many years as well as serving in the Children’s Primary Dept.; devoting many years of service to Eastland. - Dorothy W. Marker

Sarah Cather Circle will meet on Friday, November 3, 2006, at 10:30 a.m.!

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

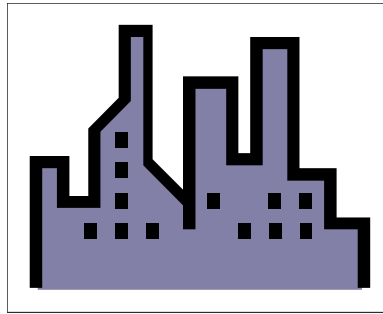

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

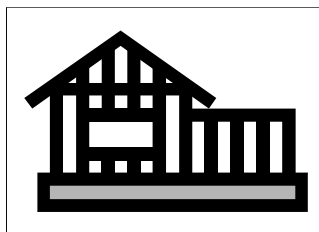

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter.

There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the

A WORD OF THANKS

To our Eastland Baptist Family,

Thank you so very much for your cards, thoughts, and prayers during the loss of Charlie's father. Even from a distance away, we could feel the support and love from you. We appreciate each and every one of you and are so very glad to be a part of this church. - Charlie and Paula Niemi
Dear Friends and Church Family at E.B.C.,

I want to thank you so much for your kindness and concern at the death of my sister, Sadie Baldwin. Thank you for your visits, your calls, all the beautiful cards and most of all for your prayers. They all meant so much to me. I love all of you! - Georgie Graves
