NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS!

SCRIPTURES FOR THE WEEK

“As long as it is day, we must do the work of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

- John 9:4 - 5 (NIV)

Jesus is urging His listeners to work while they could. Jesus is letting His listeners know that there will be a time when it will be too late to do His work. Are we being faithful in doing God’s work in our lives today?

OUTREACH OPPORTUNITY

Our next Outreach Opportunity will be on Saturday, December 2, 2006. We will be distributing flyers from 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. about Eastland Baptist Church and about the upcoming Christmas Musical.

WHAT SHALL I RENDER?

The Christian thanksgiving transforms Thanksgiving Day from a mere self-gratulatory feasting time to a time of humble gratitude of God. Instead of the fool’s thought, “Soul, take thine ease; eat, drink, be merry,” it whispers: “What shall I render unto God?” and “How can I share my blessing?” Nay, it is coming to ask, “How can I help to remove the world’s burden of poverty and wretchedness?” - Baptist

*“Count your many blessings,
Name them one by one;
And it will surprise you,
What the Lord hath done.”*

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

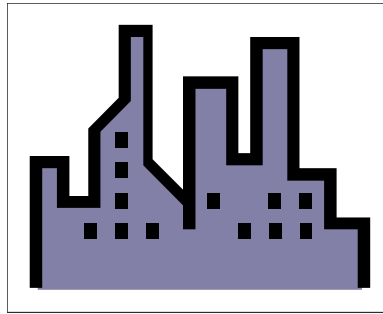

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

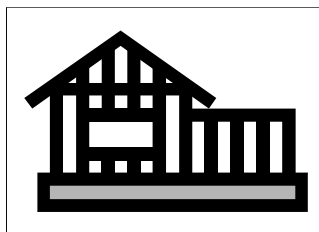

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter.

There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the
