THE UNIQUENESS OF PRAYER

I have recently found in my own life and in the lives of others, that prayer has a tremendous effect. God desires to hear from humanity which includes His children. If you look in the Bible, you see in in our scripture verse this week, as well as in other promises from God, that God will only move in the life of His church after His church (His children) first calls upon Him with a pure heart. It is our prayers that open the windows of heaven and unleash His blessings. Our desires are to agree with His desires in order for our prayers to be affective. We are not to simply go through the motions of seeking and worshipping God. We are to earnestly seek God and His will with a heart that has no agendas of its own, but is willing to accept and obey God no matter what His will calls for us. If we will do this, God will show us areas in our lives that He wants us to turn over to Him so God can show us what to pray for; thus making our prayers powerful and effective.

SCRIPTURE VERSE FOR THE WEEK:

"But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."
 - Matthew 6:33 (NIV)
