A Word From the Pastor

Dear Family,

As I have been walking in the mornings I noticed something that is a little concerning to me. No one really waves back anymore. I passed fifteen people today as I walked. Of all those fifteen people I had to initiate the wave and even after I waved first only 3 people waved back.

It is not concerning to me because we are supposed to be in the south and the Bible belt where people are nice to strangers, but because it is just a wave. A wave takes basically no effort and no time. It is not like you are asking someone for money or even getting up in their personal space and touching them as you would a hug. The wave takes less than a second and less energy than taking a sip of water. If we are not even willing to wave at people anymore what are we willing to do?

By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

John 13:35

It is crucial that we let this world know that Christ is King. In fact, he gave us commands that remind us of our duty to tell the world such as the Great Commission in Matthew 28 and the Great Mandate in Acts 1. Sometimes the best way to do this is by little gestures of love. This can be achieved through things such as; a wave, a smile, a kind word, a sincere question, a random act of kindness, or etc...

Let us show the world who Christ is through our love for Him, each other, and the world.

Bro. Israel

With Bro. Adam being out at the Youth Mission Camp this week, please enjoy this poem written by our member, Marc Steinhauer.

Tomorrow Never Comes

Today is yesterday's tomorrow
Today is glad to say hello
Today may be fine, today may be mellow
But today will never be tomorrow
It's safe to say today we will pay
For that which we gave not away
We ate all the bread, the dog got no crumbs
Believe me, tomorrow never comes.

So don't put all your dreams in one large lump
For, like tomorrow, they might not come
Enter the place where dreams come true
And every day begins anew
The morrow will take care of itself
Today avoid evil for you and all else
To keep on in sin is just for bums
Their peace, like tomorrow, never comes

How I wish that long ago
I had found out what I now know
At least I'm now washed by this blood of His Past sins are like water under the bridge
Whenever I have any doubts or fears
I kneel in prayer and grace appears
All those ill thoughts are pushed to the rear
And that old devil is tossed on his ear.
